

1 on 1 Instructor Led Workshop

These workshops are designed to offer both business people and individuals a training session to upskill and advance their professional skills in specific areas. These sessions are led by a professional trainer and are highly interactive and perfect for individuals.

The workshops can be joined by the participant with access to a computer or iPad. We conduct the workshop via ZOOM.

All manuals, activities or information required for the session will be presented at the beginning of the class for download. This enables everyone to have all they need for the session as it begins.

What To Expect

Each session will run between 4-6 HRS with a professional trainer depending on your needs. You can choose your date and no need to wait for a public offsite workshop. As the session is online we can schedule the best trainer for your session anywhere in Australia giving you a more advanced session to suit you.

Cost

The cost of the session is $495 inc GST. We can provide an optional professional certificate of completion for an extra fee.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is there any other participants attending? No. This is a workshop specifically held for you. You get the full attention of the trainer, and your needs and objectives for the session is discussed.

Do we have to use Zoom? No, we do have other online platforms if you request. We can use Livewebinar, skype and other methods.

Can we take breaks or is it a solid 4hr-6hr block. We reserve up to 6 hrs. for you as a block. You can take breaks including lunch in this time period, as we do cover more material in less time compared to a normal workshop as it is a 1 on 1.

Can we have more than one participant within the session? We do allow more than one person to attend the workshop. We do have different pricing for multiple participants to save you money so please contact us for more than one individual.

Can I do several courses or modules in the session? Yes we can customise the delivery, and cover multiple modules or different subject matter. Let us know your needs beforehand and our trainer will prepare and bring the needed workbooks into the online session.

Am I able to book after hours or on the weekend? Yes we do have availability out side of work hours.

What dates are available? Any date is available. We have multiple trainers that are happy to provide a convenient time for you.

Is this better than an off-site workshop? There are benefits of both. Online sessions allow you to train anywhere, anytime and are delivered specifically for you or your business. Off-site workshops are great if you need the public interaction, however dates and availability will be limited.
